REBECCA KELLY BALLET NOTES AND DATES

MISSION to offer a high quality, enjoyable creative exposure to dance. RKB nurtures the link between an accessible experience of dance and appreciation for the performing arts. RKB's TEEN Program provides skill building activities in ballet and modern. Dance Basics for beginners 8-12 yrs, offers a mix of ballet and modern technique. RKB teen classes for intermediates, 12-19 yrs, provides increasingly technical training, opportunities to choreograph, and perform for an audience in Open Studio presentations at the end of the semester.

RKB TEEN COMPANY offers unique opportunities to perform in a public theater in winter. January/ Feb

SCHEDULE: Sept 24-May 18. Most Public School closings. Thanksgiving Week, Tues-Fri; Winter Holiday, Dec 16 -Jan 6; Presidents Week; Spring Break. OPEN STUDIOS —Friends / Family, enjoy students' option to observe accomplishment last day of the spring semester.

ONSTAGE SUMMER CAMP: RKB's popular July day camps and intensives for dancers, ages 12-20 years and 6-11, who desire to perform. Since 1987, at the beautiful Lake Placid Center for the Arts, in the heart of the high peaks of the Adirondack Mountains, also at SUNY Potsdam. Registration forms can be downloaded from the website, RebeccaKellyBallet.org.

EDUCATION—Something different! BEHIND-THE-SCENES. Professional studio performances. Families, groups and arts aficionados see where dance and dancers are made. A late fall weekend: Highlights from the Nutcracker. Completely charming! Call 212-431-8489 for tickets or to arrange your own special dance event, site visit, or outing. School groups welcome.
